

College of the Redwoods
Short Term Program

BASIC REMODELING AND RESTORATION CERTIFICATE

JOB POSSIBILITIES:

- Job-site laborer
- Construction helper
- Apprentice carpenter
- Building maintenance
and Repairperson

SKILLS GAINED:

- ▶ Basic understanding of:
  - Construction theory
  - Construction math and measurements
  - Construction trade and job market
- ▶ Training in:
  - Safety practices
  - Carpentry tool use
  - Hands-on construction training with actual job-site experience
  - Preliminary skills necessary to become successful in the construction field
- ▶ Develop skills in the use of hand tools and woodworking machinery
- ▶ Carpentry skills can include:
  - foundations, house framing, flooring
and roof systems, windows, siding,
exterior trim, and finish carpentry

FIRST SEMESTER

CT 21A	3.0
CT 80	3.0
CT 195A	5.0
IT 161	3.0

SECOND SEMESTER

CT 21B	3.0
CT 81	3.0
CT 15	3.0
Total Units	23.0

LONG-TERM OUTLOOK:

Potential of becoming journeyman carpenter, building contractor, or tradesperson in a variety of specialties in the field of construction.

Completion of this certificate can be a step toward an associate degree and/or preparation for better job possibilities.

For a College of the Redwoods application packet, please call 476-4200.